

EAST ASIAN STUDIES

Requirements

The Minor in East Asian Studies has the following requirements:

1. Three courses (or proficiency determined by the minor advisor) in Japanese or another East Asian language. (Language courses may be allocated in any of the three thematic categories, but there may be no more than one language course in any category.)

2. Four courses selected from the following:

Code	Title	Hours
ANTH S140	Introduction to East Asia	4
ANTH S151	Modern China	4
ANTH S207	Popular Culture in China	4
ANTH S208	Religion in China	4
ANTH S301	Japanese Society	4
ANTH S302	Japanese Society Seminar	4
ANTH S303	Japanese Popular Culture	4
ANTH S304	Japan: East and West	4
ANTH S350	Islam in China	4
ANTH S351	Ethnicity & the State in China	4
ANTH S352	Cultures of Tibet	4

3. A minimum of 40 credits in HSS courses must be earned to obtain the minor.
4. Substitutions may be made with the approval of the minor advisor.

Students may apply only one (1) transfer course toward a minor.
Exceptions may be made with the approval of the minor advisor.