

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES CERTIFICATE

Requirements

In addition to the International Studies major, Rose-Hulman offers a certificate in International Studies. Like the major, the certificate is designed to introduce students to the diversity and complexity of the globalized world in which they will be working. Students may choose courses from a variety of disciplines, historical periods, and geographical areas from the list below.

- Course substitutions, including up to two non-HSSA courses with significant intercultural or international components, can be made with the consent of the International Studies Director. However, neither of these non-HSSA courses can be used to satisfy general HSSA requirements.
- Courses counted for the International Studies certificate may not be counted for HSSA minors —except that modern foreign language courses may be used to fulfill modern language requirements in one additional minor.
- Students who complete the requirements for the International Studies Major cannot also be awarded the International Studies Certificate.

Disciplinary Distribution (4 courses, 16 credit hours)

Students choose one course each from FOUR of the following six disciplines. The courses have international processes, comparisons, or other connections as a central focus. They may be substituted with other courses with the same focus with consent of IS Coordinator.
